

Masonry Heater Association of North America
Annual Contest Results for 2011
Media: High-resolution photos are available on the Media Page

Masonry Heater Category

First Place:

Jim Frisch

Western Masonry, Inc.

Spokane, Washington

www.westernmasonry.net

$33,5000

Modification of existing fireplace and floor framing, installed a custom corner bell heater with heated hearth bench. The shell is finished with Eagle Mountain and Chief Cliff Ledge stone and a Bluestone mantel and hearth.

Masonry Heater Association of North America
Annual Contest Results for 2011
Media: High-resolution photos are available on the Media Page

Masonry Heater Category

Second Place

Dave Wilcox
Wilcox Masonry
Wapakoneta, OH
stonemason64@yahoo.com

Masonry Heater Association of North America
Annual Contest Results for 2011
Media: High-resolution photos are available on the Media Page

Masonry Heater Category

Third Place:

Sean Johnston and Juha Ahokas
Warmstone Fireplaces and Designs
Livingston, MT
www.warmstone.com
Cost of Project: $56,000

This 11,000 lb. custom-cut soapstone masonry heater with panorama door, and rounded hearth, comes complete with a bake oven in the back. The soapstone was cut by a quarry in Finland according to CAD drawings provided by the designer, Sean Johnston