Dear MHA

How can I locate someone in Russia who works with heating stove standards? I am looking for someone willing to join a group that will work on a regional standard for Central Asia (including China and Russia) who:

- Who speaks English
- Who understands well the heating and cooking challenges in Cold Asia
- Who is technically adept (combustion, metrics, measurements)
- Who can afford to attend conferences occasionally and devote some time to drafting and review work.

The same applies to any country between Eastern Europe and Kyrgyzstan. We have no one from Uzbekistan, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Romania, Bulgaria and others.

Thanks

Crispin
